

PROFESSOR RICHARD TUDWAY

richardtudway@compuserve.com richardtudway.com

+44 (0) 1 444 480353

Richard Tudway

Richard Tudway is a practicing economist and economic advisor. He is also a professor at several international businesses schools.

Background

- Left school at 15 years of age. Worked for Rolls Royce Motors as an apprentice
- Trade Union Scholarship to Ruskin College Oxford, (1962) Diploma in Economics and Politics (1964)
- State Scholarship to St Peter's College Oxford University, (1965).

Higher Education

- Graduate of Oxford University in Philosophy Politics and Economics BA and MA degrees. Specialist papers in Economics. (1965 – 67)
- Post graduate studies in economics Paris, Dauphine, (Public Goods 1972) and London Queen Mary (Corporate Law and Economics) (2006)
- Business Administration at Henley Business School, England (1978)

Professional profile

- British National Economic Development Office (1967 – 1972) Secretary of the National Economic Committee for the Electronics Industry
- Executive Plessey Plc (later acquired by Siemens) with responsibility for technological forecasting and business planning (1972 - 1973)
- The OECD (Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development), Paris (1973 to 1975) Research and Development and Innovation (Science and Technology Directorate)
- International Institute for the Management of Technology, Milan, Italy. Faculty member 1975 to 1977
- Elected Member of the Royal Economic Society (1979)

- Founder Member of the Forex Advisory Group, London, (1979 – 1983). Editor of the Financial and Currency Outlook
- Vice President of Security Pacific Merchant Bank (now Bank of America). Adviser on global money markets and capital markets (1983 – 1989)
- Founder and principal of the Centre for International Economics (1990 onwards) providing advice and consultancy on developments in the global economy.
- Extensive work with institutions and public corporations in Russia and Ukraine following the collapse of the Soviet Union (1995 – 2003)
- Honorary Fellowships at Cranfield and Warwick Business Schools, England
- Counsel Member of GLG (Gerson Lehmann Group) in New York advising on global economic and financial market developments (2010 onwards)

Specific project work

- Trading of Carbon Credits within the ETS (European Trading System)
- Strategies for creating fungible Credit Credits
- Banking and capital market reforms in Russia and Ukraine
- Reform of MICEX (Moscow International Commodities Exchange)
- Reform of Credit Unions in Ukraine
- Advisory work with the Nigerian SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission) 2015
- Blockchain and Crypto Currency applications in Somalia 2017
- Advice on the development of Corporate Sustainability Strategies (current)
- Economic and industrial assessment of Brexit (current)
- Assessment of Covid 19 Quantitative Easing (QE) and public finances (current)
- Risk & Capital Adequacy - Liquidity in Repo and related SWAPS markets (current).
- Covid19 and its economic and industrial consequences (current)

Corporate governance

- Active contributor to the debate led by the OECD in defining the Framework of Corporate Governance
- Adviser to TUAC (the Trade Union Advisory Committee) to the OECD and the ILO (International Labour Office) on a range of corporate governance initiatives.
- Contributor to conferences on corporate governance and corporate social responsibility

Teaching

- Programmes at the following institutions:
- Hult (formerly Huron) International Business School (2000 – 2014),
- Chongqing School of Economics and Business Administration (2014) (2019) China
- Villanova University School of Business US (2002 – 2018)
- Ithaca College, School of Business US (1985 – 2018)
- Waikato Business School New Zealand, (2008)
- Richmond College, London (2015)
- RMIT Melbourne, Australia (2017)
- Fudan University School of Management, Shanghai (2017) (2018)

Academic Offerings

- CSR (Corporate Social Responsibility)
- Corporate governance
- Corporate finance
- Portfolio Management
- International finance
- International trade and development
- Sustainable corporate development
- Global political economy
- Global economic development

Publications

Published in academic journals and the Press. Principal publications include:

- The Looming Corporate Calamity - Heterodox Publishing, London 2015.
- Corporate governance, shareholder value and societal expectations: Corporate Governance, Vol 6 number 3, 2006.
- Beyond the ivory tower: from business aims to policy making Public Administration and Development Volume 26, Number 2, 2006
- The Juridical Paradox of the Corporation - Hart Publishing (Oxford) International Corporate Law, Volume 2, 2002
- A wide range of blogs accessible at www.richardtudway.com
- Letters published in the Financial Times, The Economist The Observer and The Guardian newspapers

Voluntary community service

- Director and Chair of the West Sussex Citizens Advice Bureau Consortium (2014 -2016)
- Director of Folders Keep Management (2011 – 2019)

END

May 2020